Dr. David Zoldoske
Center for Irrigation Technology
Mail Stop OF 18

Dear David:

Upon the recommendation of the San Joaquin Valley Water Technology Cluster group and with the concurrence of Dean Bartell and Provost Michael Ortiz, I am pleased to appoint you interim director of the International Center for Water Technology (ICWT). This appointment shall continue until June 30, 2003 and is part of your 30 percent release to the California Water Institute. There will be no increase in your salary. In this role, you have overall responsibility for the development and operation of the ICWT. Please work with the Board to develop a specific job description for this role.

Please take steps to submit a proposal to Provost Ortiz to formally establish the Center consistent with our policy on the establishment of ancillary groups which may be found in the administrative policy manual.

Thank you for your willingness to take on this most important assignment.

Sincerely,
